

This whole question of deregulation is a no-brainer. You people are supposed to be looking out for our interests (the public owners of the airwaves). This is your function. The way that you carry out that function is through REGULATION. Don't buy locks to the chicken coop from the wolves.